

The Association of South African Women in Science and Engineering (SAWISE)

SAWISE ANGUS SCHOLARSHIP (Value p.a.: R15 000)

Each year SAWISE awards the Angus Scholarship and the criteria for eligibility include:

- a. A sub-Saharan black female
- b. Must have achieved 70% or above grade average in her subject of study.
- c. Only for studies at Honours level (or 4th year equivalent e.g. in engineering)
- d. In any field of science and engineering.

South African applicants will be given preference. The successful applicant should become an active member of SAWISE.

Application deadline: 15 November annually

How to apply

Please complete the online application form, available on our website *, and email electronic copies of the following documents to sawise.scholarships@gmail.com:

- Completed application form *
- Curriculum vitae
- An official academic transcript for all years completed(record)
- Letter of motivation (~350 words)
- Certified copy of your ID

Please be aware that prior to the allocation of any funds, any successful candidate will be required to submit hard copies of these documents as well as a letter of acceptance from the university at which they will be studying.

* Application form obtainable from www.sawise.org.za/scholarships

Enquiries only: Email sawise.scholarships@gmail.com